

THE TELLER BILL.

So far, the best of all the bills Nevada is the Teller bill, published in another column.

It is absolute free coinage, the thing the West wants in a nutshell. We think that the Republicans by adopting the bill decided on in caucus have made a grave mistake.

If they fail to pass it and the Democrats unite on Teller's free coinage bill it will place the Republican party in a bad position.

If both parties unite on Teller's free coinage bill the gold bugs cannot stem the tide.

Justice at Last.

It will please thousands to learn that at last Capt. Jeremiah Cox has been awarded the full amount of his claim against D. M. Delmas his attorney. He recovers $32,862 that his attorney tried to "do" him out of. Cox's fight for his legal rights has been attended with singular opposition. He had to contend against the prejudices of the Supreme Court and then for years was a victim of the numberless technicalities which that Honorable body threw in the way of impecunious litigants. No one denied that his claim was absolutely just and the opposition determined to keep him in litigation by a technical fight until broken in pocket and spirit he would give up the unequal contest. Goaded to desperation he finally shot and killed McLaughlin, the man who owed him the money and was acquitted amid public applause. Delmas, his lawyer attempted to get the best of him and is obliged to disgorge to the tune of over $32,000. After a while people will conclude that Capt. Cox is a bad man to fool with.

COAST NEWS.

Charles M. Potter, at one time foreman of the San Francisco Chronicle composing room, took a dose of morphine at Seattle Wednesday, from which he died. He was dissipated. His wife had just reached Seattle, and when she refused to live with him he left her with the threat of killing himself.

George Smythe, aged seventeen years, died near Pomona, Cal., Tuesday, from the excessive use of tobacco. He was known to have smoked in one day sixty cigarettes and two or three strong Mexican cigars. His skin turned yellow and his eyes sunken a few days ago. The doctors say he died of narcotic poison.

Two fatal cases of la grippe within the past two weeks are reported at Santa Rosa.

An accident on the Northern Pacific near Cle-Elum, Wash., Wednesday evening resulted in the derailing of an engine and the death of a brakeman.

The remains of Jacob Binder, who so mysteriously disappeared from Sonora, Tuolumne county, Cal., five weeks ago, have been found floating at the bottom of an old shaft about three miles from town.

Eugene Howell, who used to be in the Assembly, explodes the wild stories which have been printed about the cave under Jeff Davis' Peak. He spent ten days exploring it with D. C. McDonald. He found no running water in it, and the deepest pit is 94 feet. They reached the bottom and left their names there in a can. No "bridal chamber," no stalactites, no "frozen falls," no solid limestone tombs; just a plain, ordinary cave, and that's all.

Captain Von Schmidt is trying to give the city of San Francisco fresh water, but the present gang of supervisors are not likely to allow him to do so. The solid nine will continue to fill the people with the seepage of cow pastures for some time to come. Nevada visitors to San Francisco who are used to pure mountain water never touch a drop of water in any form while at the Bay, as they dare not take the risk.

Michael Lane, a stone cutter, murdered his wife and then committed suicide in San Francisco, Thursday.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Stockholders of the Carson & Colorado Land and Cattle Company will be held at the Carson City, Nevada, on Tuesday, the 15th day of May, 1890, at 10 o'clock P. M. R. E. VERINGTON, Secretary.

It takes two car-loads of paper every year made in the East and shipped across the Continent to print the Illustrated Catalogue of WEINSTOCK, LUBIN & Co., Retailers Sacramento. Four or five fast steam presses are used in printing; and thousands of dollars are expended for engravings, editing, printing, mailing, etc.

And what does it all mean? Back of it all there is a great truth. It pays to send to them for whatever you need to wear.

This Catalogue (free to any address) places their great stock at your very doors. It lets you select at leisure and select what you wish. It does not over-persuade you to buy what your judgment the next day will tell you is an unwise purchase. You can make out your order, lay it aside for a day or two, then review it and see if it still seems a wise one. Do salesmen give you this privilege?

If goods are not as ordered, you are at liberty to return them at their expense and get your money back.

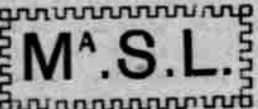

Clothing Dry Goods Millinery
Upholstery Trunks and Valises Silverware
Dress Goods Boots and Shoes Notions
Cloaks Furnishing Goods Toys, etc.
Domestics Household Supplies Fancy Work

Illustrated Catalogue free to any address. Also, samples of Dress Goods. In ordering samples, state colors desired and about the price desired.
